

Chapter 3

The Dream

As John looked out his bedroom window and into the sky, he thought about the sky and the stars. He wondered if Heaven was in the stars, or if the stars were in Heaven. John asked himself if Heaven was like a star in the sky. Boy, this was all so exciting. Suddenly, his dad was calling him and told him that it was time to go to bed. So, John got ready for bed, changed into his pajamas, and brushed his teeth. He went downstairs and said goodnight to his mom and dad. John asked them if they could talk tomorrow. His dad said that would be fine. John skipped off to bed, singing to himself about the day he just had.

John crawled into bed, pulled the covers up over his head, and began to fall asleep. As he fell asleep, he thought about the book he had started to read that day. All of a sudden...

To continue reading, you will need to purchase either a spiral-bound edition, or an electronic version of this book.