

Introduction

James 5:10a "Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord..."

"Lord Jesus, I stand before you a humble man, seeking your presence," I whispered. Immediately, I heard Jesus say, "Come, let's walk." He continued, "Son, it is a very important day for you to come to Me to talk. It is a very important time to gather in My Name. The prophets are gathered in the conference room. Come, Greg."

As we walked down the streets, we found many people who were very excited. The anointing was so strong and the peace, very great. As we approached the building with the conference room, my heart was pounding with anticipation and expectation. My knees were so weak that my angel had to support me.

As we entered the room, it was packed with prophets talking to one another. When we approached, everyone became silent. I heard Peter's voice, and then I saw him to the side. Then Jesus entered, and all of us bowed in honor.

David then spoke, saying, "Master, it is a great honor to be here. It is important for us to bring together all we have been sharing with you individually."

Then Peter spoke up, "Thank You, Jesus, for giving us all this opportunity to come together in agreement and unity to share Your truths. We want all people to know that these words are very important and will help them in their lives on earth. They should take these words and apply them to their lives as quickly as possible. This in no way nullifies Your Word, Jesus, but it does hit at the heart of a very important part of human existence.”

Jesus said, “I want all My people to know Me in My word and I want them to realize that the truths in My Word do apply to daily life; more than they know. The average person does not appreciate all I was sharing with them while I was on earth. The average person also does not give enough appreciation to the words of My prophets and how I spoke through them.

“What the prophets went through in life was a direct reflection of Me on earth. What the prophets said and did was direction from heaven being given at different times. Once proper order is restored within people, they will see more clearly. The spirit man is to be the senior person in the trinity of man.

“The Holy Spirit is the one who conveys the truths I speak and directs all people to Me. Unless their emotional side is in order, people will miss the best I have for them in life.

“All of the prophets were real people living real lives. They experienced real emotional upheaval while trying to be true to what I told them to do. People treated them very bad, mocked, ignored, and killed them. Yet, the prophets were determined to walk the walk I called them to completely.

“Today’s prophets are no different. As I send them to speak My words, they are still mocked, ridiculed, and ignored. The words I give them to speak are no less powerful than if I said them directly to them.

“Mankind is in his last days, and is still in rebellion to Me and My Word. The typical individual has been led astray by the devil through legalism and religion. Works instead of the Word are given greater priority. People still worship idols of man, especially mammon. Much of mankind still considers money to be the greatest sign of favor with God. However, they are missing the truths of My word and blocking them with emotions.

“Priorities are upside down and mixed up. The deeper works within each individual are far more critical- especially since they will determine their eternal position. Today’s church has their own golden cow that they worship and bow to, while ignoring the Holy Spirit and His Words. They can’t hear Him because they are so caught up in activities and entertainment. The still small voice is drowned out by the loud actions of man.

“Many sermons are manmade with the purpose of man lifting up man. Man is still telling Me how to run My services! In many congregations today, I stand outside looking in. I am not wanted there, because I would interfere with their theology.

“I stand at the doors of my churches and synagogues weeping because they don’t understand that they are missing Me. Oh yes, there are some, a few; the remnant that really want Me and thirst after Me. Yes, there are those who have a real passion for My presence. If they would only stop and give Me time to move in their lives.

“It is time for people to separate from distractions and to have some real time with Me; a time of communion and fellowship. I do not want them to just give Me their daily orders and commands of what they want, but to really hear what I want, and what I want to be in their lives.

“All My people have a call, and all have heard My call at one time or another; but, few, very few, even remember what that call is. They don’t even consider their call important in their lives, even though it is from Me. They forget that on that final day, I will judge them by their obedience, not their works. They don’t realize that not many will hear My words, ‘Well done good and faithful servant.’

“It is time for people to wake up and come to Me, letting go of everything including family, friends, money, things, activities, and works. Separate yourselves to Me and spend time with Me, just enjoying My presence! Learn from Me what I have wanted to show you these many years.”
