#1 A New Beginning

The page is blank and so is my heart,
this is a new beginning and a new start.

From the bottom of my being it is rising up, all the yesterday have been cleansed and washed away, all the tomorrows are standing up – ready and present.

So I start anew once again, as a newborn babe with a clean slate, being presented by the Lord Himself.

This is a new beginning and a new start,
it can be done by all who really have heart, the page is full and so is my heart

#2 Words

There have been so many ways within your days, they have both come and gone,

the words have had their impact upon the circumstances of your life.

Unfortunately the work was not completed, yet there is a change coming upon you that will modify how you think.
These thoughts are shaping everything you do.

So gather them together so that they will not be lost.

For the days ahead set them aside to be meditated upon, to prepare for the ways ahead.

To continue reading you must purchase either an electronic version, or a spiral-bound edition of the book.
