

THE UNVEILING

It's Time to Wake Up!

The times are quickly changing and my people are not ready. The church is asleep and too busy playing to hear my call, says the lord.

They have become so preoccupied with themselves they have forgotten their purpose here on earth.

- There is a shaking coming on the earth. There will be thunder and lightning striking in winter.
- The oceans will rise and where the water has been low, it will breach its banks.
- There will be tornados this winter and great hail storms. Hail will fall and cover the earth as deep as 2 feet in some places.
- I have lifted my hand of protection off the coasts and there will be winter floods. In California, there will be severe rains, flooding and mud slides.
- There will be a reversal in the winter storms; from where they usually go to where they have not been known to go before.
- This will be a colder than normal winter. There will be a severe shortage of heating fuel.

- There will be earthquakes in several counties and there will be a lot of lives lost. Cities will crumble and roads will be blocked restricting the arrival of help to the disaster areas.
- There will be outbreaks of lawlessness, riots and martial law will be necessary to regain order.
- There will be plane crashes in airports and crashes in the air.
- Governments will tumble and there will be military take overs in several countries.
- There will be a shifting in the balance of power between the East and West.
- There will be breakthroughs in medical science and solutions to illness that doctors have struggled with for years.
- There will be a breakthrough in medicine and the government will hide it to control people.
- There will be a world-wide depression in mental health care.
- There will be food shortages.
- A new world leader will arise very quickly from seemingly nowhere and grab the attention of masses of people.
