Preface

Expressing one's experiences with the Lord, especially after being taken to heaven, is not an easy task. This was a very emotional and spiritual process that is hard to put in words, especially while trying to be true and faithful to clearly state what Jesus and others said to me during these encounters.

First, I had to make sure everything was scriptural. Second, I had to ask myself if I was being totally true to what I saw and heard. Third, I had to be very prayerful each step of the way.

Jeremiah 30:2 says, "Thus speaketh the Lord God of Israel, saying, write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee into a book."

Keeping one's mind clear of other thoughts and business is work— a battle constantly fought. This process requires; First, that you write down all your thoughts and give it all to the Lord to handle; Second, that you take a step back into the Lord, and be calm, and praise Him for all He is and has done for you; Third, that you wait on the Lord quietly.

Don't talk. Don't think. Only enjoy a time of fellowship with your Savior. Then and only then was I able and prepared to hear from Him and write His holy words down.

More problems and interruptions would arise during these times than any other time of the day. I often had to close my office door and take the phone off the hook. I made my office a sanctuary where I was separate from everything, such as, work, people, family, and the world. During these times I had decisions to make that I was determined not to retreat from or ignore.

Introduction

In this day and hour, Jesus is revealing Himself in new ways. For many years there has been a veil of separation that has kept the revelation of God and His Word from mankind. In the last 10 years there has been an increased release of revelation to God's people. Now that the veil has been lifted, there is a substantial expansion of released revelations.

God desires to get His truths into the hands of His servants, in order to save a world that is dark, lost and in need of Jesus. He desires an intimate relationship with His people like never before. Jesus loves us more than we can ever imagine. Today He is revealing that Love in many tangible ways. He is giving revelation not only in the physical world, but also in the spiritual, where He is healing people's hearts and transforming lives.

This book explains the revelations of the Lord Jesus Christ as given to me in the times that He took me to heaven. The purpose of this book is to encourage and strengthen the hearts and minds of all those reading its contents.

The goal is to see many people get to know Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior, and in reading these words, to find answers to questions about heaven and their eternal existence.

First Contact

Part 1

There are times and seasons in all of our lives where we know something is going to change, yet we don't know exactly what it is, or when it is going to happen.

I, like many of you, had been brought up in a society that has had certain expectations and ideas of how things were to happen. I had read about how God had spoken to people, and how He had taken them to heaven. At first this seemed to be so far and distant from anything that would ever happen to me, I didn't really give it much thought.

Then God started revealing Himself to me in ways and at times that I did not expect. He began showing me, in dreams and visions, about Heaven and the wonder of it all. For an average person, this was overwhelming, and as I tried to talk to other people about it, I found the majority knew nothing about going to heaven. Many people never expected it to happen to anyone they knew, and definitely not to themselves.

Back in the spring of 1980, the Lord Jesus began to speak to me. I found that it was not only the words He spoke to me that were important, but also the meaning that it had for those I shared them with. These times of fellowship began to be very special and very sacred to me.

For a long time, God had been speaking to me about the need to get truths to the world that it has never known.

Yet, what was to come was totally unexpected, unsolicited, and quite overwhelming.

The time was approximately 10:00 pm on December 31, 2005. We were in our annual New Year's Eve meeting, and were presently in the praise and worship portion of the evening. The music was playing and everyone was singing worshipfully. I was standing at the back of the sanctuary against the wall. There was a stirring in my spirit; a quickening that really unsettled me.

Then I heard Jesus say, "This night you will be with Me!" The words seemed to penetrate right through me, shaking my entire being. My first thought was that I was going to die right then and there.

I was confused, yet excited at the thought of being with Jesus. I continued to sing and praise God for how mighty and awesome He is.

Chapter 2

First Contact

Part 2

Suddenly I felt my spirit lift. I felt a cool breeze on my face, and the firm grip of two angels holding onto each arm. I lost all sense of being in the sanctuary, and everything became piercingly white. All of a sudden we were there! In Heaven!

Oh, the majesty of it all! It was so beautiful! The colors were so awesome that it's hard to find the words to describe them. They were brighter and crisper than any of the colors on earth. They were so alive and intense that it took my breath away. And I was there seeing it all for myself! I felt awestruck and stunned by the glory of heaven.

“Was this all real? Was I really in heaven?” I asked myself.

No sooner had I thought this, and the answer was there. Yes, this was heaven, and yes, it was real.

I was in a large field that seemed to go on forever. The grass was a very beautiful color, which I will call green, for lack of better words. There were bundles of flowers hugging the grass and releasing a sweet aroma. I was standing at the top of a hill that went down into a valley where a river flowed. My angels informed me that it was the river of life. In the field there were children playing and running and having a wonderful time. The warmth of the sun was shining brightly on me, flooding me with a peace, warmth, and love I had never known. As I walked along, everything was singing with vibrations. It was great music to my heart, and gave me an overwhelming sense of joy.

As I walked down the hill toward the river, I continued to be extremely impressed with how alive everything was. But then I thought to myself, “I am in heaven, aren’t I?”

My angels encouraged me to move along quickly. As I walked by, people would smile and wave. They were all very friendly.

As we walked along, in the distance I could see the City of God. The skyline was majestic, large, and beautiful, looking as if it were painted. My angels told me that we had to hurry because we had an appointment with the Master.

I felt so alive and energized. Every part of me was so full, complete, and peaceful. We continued to walk, and then suddenly we were there, in the City of God! I looked down and saw that the road was made of gold stones, perfectly set in place.

As I was led around the corner of the street, I saw many people. They were all very pleasant and warm. I looked to the side, and standing there was King David! He was a strong, stately man, yet he was gentle and full of love. As we passed by, he greeted us with a warm smile and nod. Again, my angelic guides encouraged me along to our appointment.

I was engulfed by the beauty and perfection of everything around me. I felt like a tourist constantly desiring to stop and look around. I had to be continually encouraged to keep walking. As the path ended, I found myself standing in front of the throne room.

It was beyond anything that I had ever imagined. Then suddenly I was immersed in the glory of God. I felt weak in my knees. The brightness and intensity of God's glory was beyond words. I felt my knees finally give in, and instantly I fell to my face. Then I heard Jesus say, "Arise, my son!"

I managed to stand, weak from the glory. I sensed the power of His love entering every part of me, overwhelming me. I could hear the sweet sound of the majestic praise and worship as the angelic choir gave glory to God. There were more angels than I could count, and they were all so magnificent.

The songs were intense and extremely rich with anointing. They kept singing, "Glory and praise to the Lord God Almighty!"

Then the angelic choir began to sing in a heavenly language I did not know. It was so beautiful and loving, yet so fierce. My whole being was alive with song. Time seemed to stop, and I was totally unaware of anything else but Jesus.

There I was standing in the presence of Jesus, my Lord and Savior. I was not able to see very clear because of the intensity of the glory. I could only see His outline, and yet I knew it was Him. My spirit was drawn to Him. I was overtaken by the love, the power, and the glory! There was such strength and might, as well as eternal love and compassion for me.

Jesus said to me, “My son, when you go back, I want you to tell them what I tell you, no more, no less!” His words penetrated my entire being.

He continued, “Tell them that I am coming very soon, and that they are to tell everyone they can. Tell them that My return is sooner than they think!”

Suddenly I was back in the sanctuary, breathless and weak from the glory. I could hardly stand, yet I was full of life. I felt torn between two worlds!

As I gathered myself together, and tried to grasp what had happened to me, I realized how amazing this all was.

I had been to heaven and lived to tell about it! I had talked to Jesus! I could never have made this happen, even in my wildest dreams. The love was so intense. This definitely has had a strong effect on my life. I knew it was something I would never forget.
